Resources to help Refugees

Renting it Right (<http://www.rentingitright.ca/>)

The Tenant Resource and Advocacy Centre (TRAC) and Justice Education Society have collaborated to create a free online course to help renters and those assisting them to:

- Identify rental needs
- Find the right place
- Learn about the rental housing process
- Understand rights and responsibilities
- Increase confidence about tenancy

Participants receive a certificate of completion.

The course outline includes expert answers to frequently asked questions, as well as additional online resources.

Red Cross Refugee Buddy

The Red Cross has recently launched a brand-new free app, available on Google Play for android, that offers mobile resources for immigrants and refugees. This app, entitled "Red Cross Refugee Buddy" provides up-to-date information to refugees in the Netherlands and Canada. With links for translation, latest news, first aid and asylum-seeking procedure, this app will help counteract some challenges faced by newcomers in Canada.

Onboarding Syrian Refugees: A Toolkit for Employers (<http://iecbc.ca/sites/default/files/doc/IEC-BC%20Onboarding%20Syrian%20Refugees%20Toolkit.pdf>) .

The Immigrant Employment Council of BC (IEC-BC) has created a toolkit to help BC employers more effectively recruit, hire, onboard and retain a diverse workforce that includes Syrian refugees. Employers utilizing the resources will increase their:

- knowledge of culturally sensitive hiring and retention practices,
- ability to create more inclusive workplaces

The toolkit provides information, guidelines, tips, and best practices to aid employers in onboarding newly arrived Syrian refugees – and other newcomers – in a variety of workplace environments, as well as providing background information on Syrian refugees.
